Perspective Asia Pacific

PROCEEDINGS OF THE
Indian Association for Asian & Pacific Studies

Sixth Biennial International Conference

Kolkata
December 2012

Indian Association for Asian & Pacific Studies
&
Maha Bodhi Book Agency2

CONTENTS

Key note speakers address
Asia Can't be a Hamlet without Prince of Denmark
Sunanda K. Datta- Ray 14

SECTION I: SOUTH ASIA

Section President's Address
Regional Order in South Asia
P. Sahadevan 26

Sacred Groves of India: Exploring the Cultural Dimension of an Ancient Ethno-Ecological Institution
Shreyashi Chaudhuri and Kuntal Narayan Chaudhuri 36

Colonial Architecture in Bengal:
A Tool of Cultural Assimilation
Kanchana Mukhopadhyay 47

History and Historiography of the Madras Presidency Army under the Colonial Rule: 1752-1858
Manas Dutta 57

Community Service and Patriotism: Barisal and the Sources of Inspiration of Revolutionaries
Sarvani Gooptu 71

Abani Mukherjee: The Ignored Revolutionary
Panchali Majumdar 83

British Women and their Colonial Domesticity as Reflected in the Household Manuals
Rituparna Ray Chowdhury 93

Post-colonial Historiography in South Asia: A Case Study of Pakistan
Maneesha Tikekar 102

Social Exclusion and Human Rights: Highlighting the Plight of Sewage Cleaners in Contemporary India
Sourish Ghosh 112

Alienation and Restoration of Tribal Forest Rights: An Overview
Anindya Basu 121

Evolution of Jatra (1876-1908)
Sujata Banerjee 130

Fractured Nationhood: Swadeshi Theatre of Bengal and Building of a National 'SELF' (1905-1911)
Mimasha Pandit 140

Asserting Sporting Values: Games and Sports in the Suburbs and around Kolkata in the Post Colonial Era: A Case-Study of Ward-14 of Panihati Municipality
Suparna Ghosh 152

Fighting Corruption in Bihar: Agenda for Action
Maneesha Roy 163

Is India Shining Treating Unequal Unequally
Linking Development Disparity, Conflict and Resistance Movements in Jharkhand and Chhattisgarh
Ravi Ranjan 178

William Carey, the Educationist and the Initiator of Social Awareness
Saptarshi Mallick 196

Max Mueller's Discourse (1874) on Oriental Studies: Some Reflections
Aniruddha Das 208

A Duel between Western & Indigenous Medical System during Colonial Rule in Bengal: Another Struggle for Swaraj
Sanjoy Mukherjee 215

Place of Women in the Tantra
Karabi Mitra 233

Women in Epigraphy: A Case Study of the Srikakulam Region (11^{th} -13^{th} Century CE)
Sabarni Pramanik Nayak 243

Rebuilding India in the Vision of Swami Vivekananda
Debika Guha 258

Swami Vivekananda through Contemporary Eyes
Maitreyi Sen Gupta 266

Vivekananda and His Concept of Universal Religion and Individual- Social Freedom
Pratyay Dutta 277

Swami Vivekananda's Philosophy of Education
Radha Ghosh 300

A Brief History of Nursing in Colonial India
Aparajita Dhar 309

Hospitals in Colonial Calcutta during the Second 19th Century: A Case Study of Presidency General Hospital
Sohini De 318

Mritsilpis of Kolkata- Urban Craftsmen in Search of Identity and Livelihood
Saswati Bhattacharya 329

SECTION II: SOUTHEAST ASIA

Section President's Address
Southeast Asian Recent Attempts to Broaden Regional Integration in Asia
Suthiphand Chirathivat 341

Connectivity between India and Southeast Asia: Evidences and Analysis of Some Ancient Texts
Bhaswati Mukhopadhyay 379

BURMA: A Destination of Bengali Revolutionaries between 1923-1933
Susmita Mukherjee 389

Colonial Connections across the Bay of Bengal: The South- Southeast Asian Linkages
Jayanti Bhattacharya 406

Passion Crimes or Signs of Resistance: Camouflaging Resistance by Indian Women on Colonial Malaya Plantations
Arunima Dutta 425

The Political Economy of China-India-Myanmar Relations: Geo-strategic and Economic Dimensions: Changes, Challenges and Prospects for the Global Order in 21st Century
Jayant Joshi 436

Changing Border Matrix: A Study of India-ASEAN FTA and Northeast India
Saheli Bose 450

Partners in Progress: A Discourse on Relations between Malayasia and India
Patit Paban Mishra 462

SECTION III: EAST ASIA & PACIFIC

Section President's Address
Is There a Need for China Studies in India?
Tansen Sen 475

Japan and Bengal: Contact in Modern Times
Nirban Basu 483

The Emerging Geo-Strategic Environment of the Asia Pacific: China's Rise and India's Search for Security
Sreeparna Dasgupta 491

Revisiting Indo-China relations: Problems and Prospects of Political Violence in India's Northeast with Special Reference to Manipur
Ch Rupachandra 508

Normalisation of Relationship: India's Trade with China during 1977-1981
Anirban Ghosh 517

Corruptibility of Corruption in China
Rajen Singh Laishram 532

Rhetoric and Reality: China's Quest for Energy and Environment Security
Tilak Jha 542

Women in China: Challenges & Opportunities
A Historical Analysis from 1911 to Maoist Era
Shachee Agnihotri 562

SECTION IV: CENTRAL & WEST ASIA

Section President's Address
"India-Central Asia Relations": Revitalizing the Civilization Ties for A Stable and Prosperous Asia
A.P.S Chauhan 577

Beijing Looking towards Central Asia
Dona Ganguly 581

The Representation of Gender in Post- Soviet Tajik Films: Challenges and Constraints of a Society in Transition
Nandini Bhattacharya 592